2 Taliban on Afghan Future, Peace, Women's Rights -- 'Islamic system' only way

Hot Terms- "genuine Islamic system"

- Talks between the militants and the Afghan government have been deadlocked for month
- Fears are also growing that if the Taliban return to power, they will reimpose their harsh version of Islamic law, under which girls were banned from school and women accused of crimes such as adultery were stoned to death in stadiums.
- the Taliban "would roll back much" of the progress made in Afghan women's rights if the Islamist extremists regained national power.

Why do bureaucrats always get the blame?

Criticising civil bureaucrats has become a trend for journalists.

Hot Terms-

- 1— the role of civil servants under the Constitution of Bangladesh.
- 2. Politicians, mostly ministers, formulate policies and civil servants implement these policies.
- 3. The reason the Prime Minister asked secretaries to take over relief distribution from MPs was because of widespread corruption in it. This was reported by all newspapers. Once the secretaries took over, the relief distribution was efficient, and the poor received what was meant for them. But no newspaper reported this.
- 4. There is no reason the top jobs of the Public Service Commission (PSC) should go to academics

Why do bureaucrats always get the blame?

Criticising civil bureaucrats has become a trend for journalists.

Hot Terms-

6. It may be popular to blame bureaucrats. The trut5. That is why professors have failed so miserably as administrators (vice chancellors) of public universities. It may be news to you that in India, bureaucrats are often appointed vice chancellors of central universities such as Jamia Millia Islamia, Delhi University, Aligarh Muslim University, Banaras Hindu University, Jawaharlal Nehru University and so on. It may be even more surprising that the central Indian government feels quite comfortable appointing joint secretaries in these roles.

h is that a country needs an efficient bureaucracy to run the affairs of the government and serve the public. Politicians should formulate policies. Professors should teach. Civil servants should govern.

7.A skilled and efficient bureaucracy is a fundamental pillar of democracy.
